

Federal Laws		Washington State Laws		Oregon State Laws		Montana State Laws	Idaho State Laws
DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) Passed in June 2012	DREAM Act (Development, Relief and Education of Alien Minors Act)	HB 1079 (House Bill 1079) Passed in May 2003	SB 6523 (The Real Hope Act) Passed in Feb. 2014	HB 2787 Passed in 2013	SB 932	HB 638 (LR 121)	SB 1280
Offers 2-year, renewable reprieve of deportation & permission to work.	Introduced in August 2001 & will provide certain undocumented students a pathway to US citizenship	Undocumented students can be considered as “residents” for the purpose of paying in-state tuition fees.	Expands eligibility for the Washington State Need Grant to non-citizens	Provides certain students an exemption from nonresident tuition and fees at OR public universities.	Allows eligible students to apply and be considered for the state funded Oregon Opportunity Grant (OOG) and , if eligible, Oregon Promise.	There have been no proposal to provide in-state tuition for undocumented students.	Extended In-state tuition to undocumented students who enroll at an ID public college
To qualify:		To qualify:	To qualify:	To qualify:	To qualify:	HB 638 (LR 121) was voted on and passed during the 2012 General Election. It requires proof of citizenship by Montanans in order to receive certain state services including public university benefits.	To qualify:
1. Under the age of 31		1. HS Diploma or GED from the state of WA	1. HS Diploma or GED from the state of WA	1. Attended elementary or secondary/high school in a state territory of the U.S. for at least 5 years	1. Students need to be OR residents or be exempted through HB 2787		1. Students must have graduated from HS within the last 6 years
2. Entered the US before age 16	HAS NOT BEEN PASSED	2. Lived in WA for 3 or more years & continuously after earning HS Diploma or GED	2. Lived in WA for at least 3 years prior to earning HS Diploma or GED and continuously after	2. Studied at an OR school for at least the 3 years prior to earning HS Diploma or		Undocumented students are not eligible for federal financial aid.
3. Lived continuously in the US for at least 5 years		3. Meet admission requirements of the College or Univer-	3. File a HB 1079 affidavit
4. No felony convictions,			4. Meet the eligibility
5. Currently in school, graduated from HS, learned a GED, or							